

Withdrawal of Fax Services

With effect from August 2019 this practice will no longer use a fax machine. This is to enhance data security and to support the NHS Paper Switch-Off programme (PSO).

We are in the process of advising all of the organisations we work with of this change and please rest assured your care will not be affected by the withdrawal of this service.