

COVID-19 has changed many things - the need to have regular cervical screening isn't one of them

Appointments are available - we have new procedures to keep you safe

You and the nurse may be asked to wear a face covering

You may need to attend only at your appointment time

You may need to attend your appointment alone

Please ask at reception for more details

Remember, early detection is vital - book your appointment